MURRAY BRIDGE Health and Care Sector Expo will empower those who are interested in the Health Care industry with insight, knowledge, and connections to take the first step in their chosen career.

To be held on Wednesday 16 November 2022 from 1pm – 4pm at the Murray Bridge Town Hall, this free event aims to connect employers with potential employees with current vacancies within the health, age care and disability sectors. The Expo will help those interested to establish a new career pathway in an exciting and fast growing industry.

This Expo is a proud collaboration between Council, Boosting the Local Care Workforce, Regional Development Australia Murraylands and Riverland and the Local Jobs Program – Murray and South East.

Tammie Hamilton, Manager at Lerwin said, “The Care sector is growing at a rapid rate with a number of job opportunities opening up. This Expo will provide anyone who’s interested in getting into the sector with critical and local information and will help create of the right connections”

A career in the Care industry can offer many advantages including flexible working conditions, local opportunities, challenging and rewarding work, and secure careers with interesting and varied pathways.

“Imagine a job where you are appreciated and respected, and can make a really huge and positive difference in someone’s life,” said Ms. Hamilton.

“There will be many employers present on the day of the Expo with job vacancies and training opportunities ready for the right people”
