GET READY to Rhyme, Grind and Climb at Murray Bridge's biggest annual youth event at Pine Park this January!

Presented by 'The Station', Rhyme, Grind & Climb 5 will be held at 4pm until 8pm, Saturday 14 January, at Pine Park, Murray Bridge.

Rural City of Murray Bridge Youth Officer Bridgette Syrus said the event is one of the most popular and in demand gigs for youth in the Murray Bridge area.

"We are so thrilled to be bringing you this massive event for its fifth year! It is a great opportunity to experience and be immersed in some of the best Hip-Hop the Murraylands has to offer" she said.

'This all ages, free event has something for everyone. Enjoy live Hip-Hop performed by local young musicians, feel the adrenaline on the rock climbing wall or witness a live mural being painted right in front of your eyes. All whilst being in the heart of Murray Bridge'

'An onstage show will feature multiple live Hip-Hop acts – with local artists emerging from The Station's Hip-Hop Connect music program as well as Adelaide based rappers.'

This event will also feature a rock climbing wall, face painter, skate and scooter workshops, live aerosol art and many other fun activities to engage local youth.

This is a free, family friendly, all ages inclusive event – no alcohol permitted.
