1 POLICY STATEMENT

The Rural City of Murray Bridge engages volunteers to undertake duties for the benefit of the Rural City of Murray Bridge and its community. Volunteers must maintain high standards in assisting in the delivery of services to the Rural City of Murray Bridge community based on the principles that include acting with reasonable care, diligence, honesty, respect, integrity and transparency.

2 DEFINITIONS

Definition of Volunteering: Volunteering is time willingly given for the common good and without financial gain. (Volunteering Australia, 2015)

'Council' means the Rural City of Murray Bridge.

'Volunteer' means a person who is providing their service of their own free will, without financial reward and undertaking clearly established tasks with and on behalf of the Rural City of Murray Bridge.

3 OBJECTIVES

Volunteers, like paid employees, are a public face of the Council they represent and even though they give their time freely, they are still a part of the overall structure of the Council they work within.

Rights and responsibilities set the standards of a volunteer program within any Council and assist both the Council and each volunteer to abide by the philosophy and ethos of the Council.

The Council has a significant commitment to its volunteers and has substantial responsibilities towards them including recognising The National Standards for Volunteer Involvement 2015.

Volunteers have the same level of responsibility as the paid workforce with regard to their behaviour and activities while carrying out their duties for the Council.

Volunteers play an integral role within society in general by initiating and enhancing the services provided by employed staff, without being a substitute for paid work.
