POETS, bards, lyricists and authors are invited to perform their art at an Open Mic Poetry and Prose hosted by the Station at the Murray Bridge Library on Sunday June 20 from 1:30 until 3:30pm.

A FREE event for all ages, each performer will get five minutes to showcase their writings, whether it is a simple poem about the beach or lyrics to a song they've written. All people of all ages are welcome, but young people especially are invited.

Murray Bridge Youth Development Officer and event organiser Aiden Fargher said "Lots of young people and their parents have been asking for opportunities for poetry for a while now. It's also a great opportunity for our young musicians to showcase their lyrics and local authors to share excerpts of their work too.

"This is a chance for local wordsmiths to display their skills and connect with other like-minded people.

"You can just drop in to view the talent or you can book in to perform. We're encouraging people of all levels to give it a go."
