Dog registration and expiation income enables Council to undertake animal management and public safety, recreational opportunities for pets and their owners and educational materials. Examples include:
• User friendly dog-off leash parks; • Animal Management Officers who are trained in Animal Behaviour management techniques; • An identification process for all dogs which allows lost or injured dogs to be reunited with their owners; • Support By Law Control; • Provide an effective communication process to dog owners and the general public; • Dog Pound; • Education Programs; • Support of dog obedience programs; and • 12% of registration fees is paid to the Dog & Cat management Board. The board funds welfare organisations, including animal welfare league and RSPCA, provides training for dog management officers and produces educational information for Council to distribute to the community.
DOG REGISTRATION FEES AND CHARGES
Concession
Proof of concession must be sighted by staff at initial registration and each year registration is renewed. Acceptable concession for dog registration include:
• Pension card; • Seniors card; and • Healthcare card.
Other Rebates
Rebate	Proof Required
Desexed	A sterilisation certificate from a vet - alternatively a statutory declaration.
Microchipped	A microchip registration certificate showing the registration details on the database are current. These can be obtained from the registry holding the details of the dog's registration.
Working Dog	Are primarily used for droving or tending stock. A concession applies where this can be demonstrated by documents such as tax records, copies contract, etc. in the previous 12 months.
Greyhound	Concession fees only apply to dogs currently registered with the SA Greyhound Racing Control Board - Current registration papers must be sighted.
Guide/Hearing & Disability Dogs	The guide and hearing dog concessions will be applied after presentation of documentation supporting completed training with the Guide Dog Association of SA or Lions Hearing Dogs. The Disability Dog concession is only available upon presentation of two medical certificates, one from a specialist and any further information required by the Dog and Cat Management Board. The relevant documentation only needs to be presented once - subsequently the concession will automatically be applied annually.
Puppy	Puppies that have been microchipped and are waiting to reach the appropriate age for desexing.
Fines
The fine for owning an unregistered dog is $170 under the Dog & Cat Management Act 1995. The fine for a dog wandering at large is $210 under the Dog & Cat Management Act 1995. The fine for owning a non-microchipped dog is $170 under the Dog & Cat Management Act 1995. The fine for a non-desexed dog born after 1st July 2018 is $170 under the Dog and Cat Management Act 1995.
