Congratulations to the esteemed local athletes at this year's Sports Awards ceremony – a momentous event that celebrated the local legends of the sporting realm.

The event was held at the Bridges Event Centre on Wednesday 11 October. The stage was graced by the presence of our local hero and Paralympic athlete, Katrina Webb, who took on the mantle of Master of Ceremonies for the night.

Council is excited to announce this year's Sports Awards winners:

Young Sportsperson of the Year Female

Winner: Leah Anderson-Morris (Netball)

Young Sportsperson of the Year Male

Winner: Enqi Luo (Tennis)

Sportsperson of the Year Female

Winners: Megan Knight (Bodybuilding) and Janet Smith (Powerlifter)

Sportsperson of the Year Male

Winner: Andrew Heard (Rifle shooting)

Sporting Volunteer of the Year

Winner: Nicky Smith

These winners stand as beacons of glory, setting the benchmark for sporting excellence within our region. As we celebrate their victories, we eagerly anticipate the phenomenal journey that lies ahead for these athletes.

The Rural City of Murray Bridge is ready to cheer on and support our sporting superstars, as they embark on future triumphs and continue to make us proud.
