MAYOR Brenton Lewis is inviting the whole community to a free street party to celebrate Murray Bridge Fringe festival.

Mayor Lewis said regional Fringe provided an opportunity for the community to experience the best of SA arts and culture, although he was personally most looking forward to experiencing the local acts.

"Murray Bridge Fringe will be spectacular and I personally invite all residents and their families to come along for the free street party and enjoy what is sure to be an amazing night out," he said.

"We produce some great local talent here in the Murraylands and it will be fantastic to see some of our best performers showcasing their talents."

Sixth Street will come to life for the event with a stage at one end for acts and food vendors and a bar at the other.

Handpicked performers include cabaret sensation Hans, international stunt woman in 'Tianna the Traveller', technical colour themed circus performer 'Hannah Cryle', high energy acrobatics and red hot juggling by 'The Circus Firemen', a modern day magic show from 'The Showmen' and a quartet pushing instrumental boundaries: Ukulele Death Squad.

Local acts include all girl brass band DaDux, guitarist/singer Peri Strathearn, dance/hip-hop performer Unlimited Feet, guitarist/singer Mark Bettcher and Harley Hall will provide an indigenous welcome to country and didgeridoo.

Two ticketed shows will be held at the Murray Bridge Town Hall: Fleetwood Mac tribute 'Go Your Own Way' and comedian Thomas Green with 'Boom'.

Murray Bridge Fringe will be held 5pm until 9pm Saturday 23 February 2019 on Sixth Street, Murray Bridge. To purchase Town Hall event tickets visit www.adelaidefringe.com.au/fringetix/go-your-own-way-af2019
