LOCAL Youth will have the opportunity to express themselves through a fun-filled art program at The Station with Art Connect.

Art Connect is a series of sessions, held between 4pm – 6pm in fortnightly sessions from Thursday 11 May until the 6 July, at The Station.

The program is aimed at promoting creative thinking, design, using different mediums and the benefits of art on well – being.

This is a free program for anyone aged 12–25, keen on harnessing their artistic abilities and expanding their creative horizons.

The Station is a renowned venue for youth development through the music and arts industry, harnessing the talents of some of the finest youth artists in the region.

The Youth Development Officer, Aiden Fargher, said, "We aim to engage participants using multiple mediums and encourage techniques of creative thinking, design, drawing, spray paint, brush paint, stencilling, along with how to seek murals and art opportunities in the community."

Art Connect's five sessions are happening on 11 May, 25 May, 8 June, 22 June, and 6 July. To join in the fun, please register here.
