ACTS have been announced for the Murray Bridge Fringe festival and street party set to transform the heart of the town for one extravagant night of culture and entertainment later this month.

Cabaret sensation Hans, seen by millions as he shot to fame on America's Got Talent will headline the event as performers, food, flavours and fun spill into the street.

Other visiting acts include international stunt woman in 'Tianna the Traveller', technicolour themed circus performer 'Hannah Cryle', high energy acrobatics and red hot juggling by 'The Circus Firemen', a modern day magic show from 'The Showmen' and a quartet pushing instrumental boundaries: Ukulele Death Squad.

Fringe calibre local talent includes all girl brass band DaDux, guitarist/singer Peri Strathearn, dance/hip-hop performer Unlimited Feet, guitarist/singer Mark Bettcher and Harley Hall will provide an indigenous welcome to country and didgeridoo.

Adelaide Fringe Director and CEO Heather Croall said excitement was building in the lead up as acts were announced and details fleshed out.

"Murray Bridge Fringe is going to be fantastic," she said.

"We have had quality acts lined up and vying for the opportunity to perform in Murray Bridge."

Two ticketed shows will be offered as part of the event at Murray Bridge Town Hall including a tribute to the music of Fleetwood Mac by Koral and the Goodbye Horses 'Go Your Own Way' and comedian Thomas Green with 'Boom'.

Murray Bridge Fringe will be held 5pm until 9pm Saturday 23 February 2019 on Sixth Street, Murray Bridge. To purchase Town Hall event tickets visit www.adelaidefringe.com.au/fringetix/go-your-own-way-af2019
