

Have you been affected by the fire at Thomas Foods International?

Free support is available by calling 8535 7170

The South Australian Government is providing free support for you through a Job Connection Service to discuss your employment options. Training funds to the value of $2,000 are available for each eligible worker to access relevant training to assist you to re-enter the workforce*.

JOB CONNECTION SERVICE:

Provides support to you to prepare and connect to employment opportunities in the region.

ELIGIBILITY:

Workers who are on stand-down or no longer employed with the company as a result of the fire.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT CENTRE:

Support is available to you through our Career Development Centre:

- ▶ Résumé building
- ▶ Applying for new jobs
- ▶ Interview preparation and practice
- ▶ Connection to jobs in the region

Are you a business that has been affected by the fire at Thomas Foods International?

You may be eligible for free support. Contact Regional Development Australia for a confidential discussion.

Connecting Real People to Real Jobs

To register for support contact RDAMR info@rdamr.com.au or call 8535 7170

137 Adelaide Road Murray Bridge

*Conditions apply.